COURSE UPDATE

16th Bunker

This week we have been reshaping the 16th green side bunker and the right hand side of the green. We should have the work done in a couple of weeks as the weather is forecast to be dry.

Why?

The bunker base was at an angle, so after rain the sand would wash down to the right hand side, and the left side clay face would be exposed making the bunker shot difficult. The grass bank was steep and didn't follow the contours of the surrounding ground.

We have moved the bunker back a couple of metres, which has allowed us to shape a smoother bank and this will make mowing easier. The sand level has been raised and the base of the bunker is level which will make it easier to maintain and keep a more consistent depth of sand.

Two grass bunkers have been shaped into the area past the bunkers around the green, which will help slow down shots which may be heading into the hedge.

We are hoping to get most of the turf around the bunker re-laid for the weekend, and next week the bunker needs to be drained into the old drain. The two grass bunkers need draining into the ditch and a layer of top soil before we can turf.

Cheers
